

4 Red Star Ettington Park, Stratford-upon-Avon

Midweek Bridge Break

Tuesday 15th - Friday 18th May 2018

Due to popular demand, Andrew Robson Bridge Holidays are excited to be hosting an additional midweek break to the delightful AA 4 Red Star Ettington Park Hotel, Stratford-upon-Avon.

Ettington Park Hotel is a striking Neo-Gothic mansion and the only AA 4 Red Star hotel close to the medieval market town of Stratford-Upon-Avon. The AA awards red stars to the highest-rated hotels, which are deemed 'Inspectors' Choice'.

The hotel is set in 40 acres of parkland just six miles from the centre of the famed 16th century birthplace of William Shakespeare and just a few miles from the start of The Cotswold Way. Ettington Park has an acclaimed 2 AA Rosettes restaurant and an indoor swimming pool. ARBH will organise an optional half day excursion to Stratford-upon-Avon, Warwick Castle or Blenheim Palace.

As it is a midweek break we are able to stay for an extra night, so more time to hone up your skills at the Bridge table! The Bridge standard is friendly Intermediate, as always, and no partner needed. Jack Stocken will teach Andrew Robson's lessons and excellent set hands. The Bridge is not suitable for players that are used to a serious 24 board duplicate. To avoid disappointment, please book early as numbers are limited in this country house hotel.

Andrew Robson Bridge Holidays Limited. Company number 8997251. Incorporated in England & Wales
Registered Office: Brick Kiln Cottage, The Avenue, Herriard, Basingstoke, Hampshire RG25 2PR

Facilities: Restaurant: The hotel offers the critically acclaimed The Oak Room restaurant and 19th century Chapel which has 2 AA red Rosettes. A renowned restaurant in its own right, The Oak Room offers seasonal and regional dishes made, by Head Chef David Guest and his team, with creativity and served with a touch of flair. There is a fantastic wine list to complement the menu.

The Great Drawing Room and The Bar: The Great Drawing Room is a special part of any stay at Ettington Park Hotel. Featuring an ornate ceiling with friezes, as well as tapestries, beautiful oil paintings and ceiling high sash windows with extensive views of the grounds and Norman chapel. Enjoy relaxing in The Great Drawing Room, or on the beautiful terrace (pictured on the front page), whilst enjoying either morning coffee, afternoon tea (including Champagne), evening cocktails or late night digestifs at The Bar.

Leisure: Facilities include a heated indoor swimming pool, jacuzzi, sauna and steam room, and outdoor tennis courts.

Bedrooms:

All 48 bedrooms are non-smoking and are individually furnished with special care and attention to detail befitting the style of the country house hotel. Rooms include flat screen TVs, complimentary WIFI and many have a media hub to connect devices to a TV. Rooms also have direct dial telephones, safe, hair dryer, courtesy tea/coffee tray, fridge and bottled water.

Classic Room:

Classic bedrooms, located in either the main house or garden wing, have a more contemporary feel. Some rooms are available to configure as a twin room, as opposed to a double bed. En-suite with shower over bath. The rooms overlook the hotel's grounds and gardens.

Executive Room:

These are spacious double and twin rooms, many affording views of the grounds and gardens and some having original features such as fireplaces. Some are situated in the main gothic mansion house, whilst others are in the garden wing. These rooms are generally larger although they do vary in size and shape and include all of the amenities you will find in a Classic room.

Suite:

ARBH is not holding any suites. However it may be possible to book a suite, subject to availability and cost. Please contact us for further information.

Bridge Room:

ARBH has exclusive use of The South Room for our Bridge sessions. The South Room has a large antique stone fireplace, wood panelled ceiling and plenty of natural daylight overlooking the main entrance and grounds of the hotel.

Excursion:

ARBH will arrange a half day optional excursion, to include lunch, to either nearby Stratford-upon-Avon, birthplace to William Shakespeare, or possibly to Warwick Castle (pictured below) or Blenheim Palace. Please note that the excursion is not included in the package price, the itinerary is subject to change and minimum numbers apply.

Shakespeare's Birthplace, the 16th Century Half Timbered House

Warwick Castle

Stratford-upon-Avon: Stratford-upon-Avon is a quintessentially English town synonymous with one of the most quoted authors in the English language - William Shakespeare's birthplace. From quaint side streets offering unique shops, galleries and eateries to open parklands, with more than 800 years of history to uncover there is something for everyone. Situated on the River Avon, Stratford was originally inhabited by Anglo-Saxons and remained a village before it received its town charter from King Richard I in 1196, after which it saw an increase in trade and commerce as well as urban expansion.

Today, the picturesque Warwickshire town is a popular destination - part in thanks for being home to the world famous Royal Shakespeare Company and the five beautifully preserved Tudor homes and gardens, all directly linked with Shakespeare and his family.

Warwick Castle:

One of the best-preserved medieval castles in Britain is only a half-hour drive north-east of Stratford.

Blenheim Palace:

A UNESCO World Heritage Site boasting a long and diverse history. Home to the 12th Duke of Marlborough and his family and the birth place of Sir Winston Churchill.
